PART I. Regulation Governing Fees

Article 1 – Subject Matter of the Regulation

This regulation governs the kinds of compensations for services (hereinafter the “Exchange fees”) provided by the Prague Stock Exchange (hereinafter “PSE”) and the main principles for establishing their amounts, maturity and the terms of payment. The regulation furthermore establishes the manner of their settlement.

Article 2 – Types of Exchange Fees and their Structure

- (1) Exchange fees are:
 - a) the fee (one-off) for the acceptance of securities and other investment instruments for trading on the Exchange markets, including the listing of a tranche of government bonds issued under the Government Bond Programme,
 - b) the fee (one-off) for acceptance of an investment instrument program
 - c) the fee (annual) for trading and settlement of securities and other investment instruments on PSE markets,
 - d) the fee (one-off) for applying for membership; this fee is deducted from the total amount of the fee for acceptance as an Exchange member in case of the membership approval,
 - e) the fee (one-off) for acceptance as an Exchange member,
 - f) the fee (annual) for membership on PSE,
 - g) the fee for organising prompt trades and their settlement, if any
 - h) the fee for disproportionate use of trading system capacity,
- (2) Fees for the settlement of exchange trades are the fees of the Central Securities Depository Prague (hereinafter “CSD”). PSE collects these fees for CSD. Nevertheless, their amount is limited by the maximum amount of the trading and settlement fee collected by PSE. In case that the total trading fee per transaction does not reach the amount of the settlement fee under the CSD price list and tariff of material costs, the obligated entity pays only the lower total fee according to the Tariff of Exchange Fees.

Article 3 – Responsible Parties

- (1) The parties responsible for payment of Exchange fees are Exchange members, applicants for Exchange membership, the Czech National Bank, the Czech Republic acting through the Ministry of Finance and the issuers of investment instruments or applicants for admission of investment instruments for trading at PSE.
- (2) The party responsible for paying the fee listed in Article 2, paragraph 1, letters a), b) and c) is the issuer of investment instruments or applicants for admission of investment instruments for trading.
- (3) The party responsible for paying the fee listed in Article 2, paragraph 1, letters d) is the applicant for Exchange membership.

- (4) The party responsible for paying the fee listed in Article 2, paragraph 1, letters e) is the Exchange member.
- (5) The parties responsible for paying the fee listed in Article 2 paragraph 1, letter f), g) and h) are Exchange members, the Czech National Bank and the Czech Republic acting through the Ministry of Finance.

Article 4 – Jurisdiction

- (1) The Exchange Chamber establishes the amounts of fees in the Tariff of Exchange Fees.
- (2) Administration of fees is secured by the CEO of PSE in accordance with the relevant resolutions of the Exchange Chamber.

Article 5 – Fee Amounts

- (1) The amount of fees is determined based on percentages of the base (percentage fee) or as a fixed amount (fixed fee).
- (2) The base of the fees listed in Article 2, paragraph 1, letter c) is the market capitalization of the issue of securities. If the issue is introduced onto the market in several stages (as tranches, issues), for the purpose of calculation of fees, each tranche shall be seen as a separate issue.
- (3) For fees for bonds and other debt securities, which yield is established as the difference between the face value of the security and the lower issue price, the basis for calculating fees is the face value.
- (4) The base for the fees pursuant to Article 2, paragraph 1, letter g) is the amount (volume) of the concluded Exchange transactions during the given period. The Exchange Chamber may adopt resolutions for the adjusting of the percentage amount of fees for a transitional period.
- (5) The fees pursuant to Article 2, paragraph 1, letter f) in the calendar year in which the applicant is accepted as an exchange member or has been granted authorisation to trade with investment instruments that are not securities or with other instruments of the capital market at PSE are reduced in proportion to the part of the year that remains from the date of acceptance of the member or from the date of the granting of authorisation for trading with the aforementioned instruments at PSE until the end of that calendar year, so that the fee calculation starts from the month following the approval/authorization.
- (6) The fees pursuant to Article 2, paragraph 1, letter h) is paid by PSE member in the case when orders placed in the trading system exceeds the parameter set by PSE as the share between the orders placed and the orders traded. This parameter is calculated per member, trading day and instrument. The calculation is done for order number and also for order volume.

Article 6 – Payment Due Dates for Fees

- (1) Payment of the fees listed in Article 2, paragraph 1, letters a), b) and e), is due after the rendering of the relevant decision, within 15 days of the issuing of an invoice by PSE.
- (2) Payment of the fee listed in Article 2, chapter 1, letter d) is due with the submitted membership application.
- (3) Payment of the fees listed in Article 2, paragraph 1, letter c), is due by 15 February of the year in question. In case of the obtaining of authorisation for trading at the Exchange during the year, payment of these fees is due after the rendering of the relevant decision, within 15 days of the issuing of an invoice by the Exchange.

- (4) Payment of fees listed in Article 2, paragraph 1, letter g) and h) is due on the 15th calendar day (or on the next business day) of the month following the month during which the service is provided. The fees are to be settled via bank transfer on the basis of an order issued by CSD. For the third party's payment, from the interbank payment account of the payer's bank kept with the Czech National Bank.
- (5) The obligated entity (Article 3), who is likewise required to comply with the Exchange rules, consents to the issuance of the invoice according to this fee schedule in electronic form, in accordance with valid legal regulations.
- (6) The Exchange will send the obligated entity the issued invoice in electronic form furnished with an electronic code and a qualified time stamp based on the qualified system certificate.
- (7) The obligated entity shall provide its e-mail address to PSE for the delivery of invoices issued pursuant to the previous paragraph. The Exchange must be notified of any changes to this address by the last day of the calendar month for the invoiced period. The delivery date of the invoice shall be regarded as the date the e-mail delivery report is received.

Article 7 – Use of Funds

Funds obtained from fees are revenues of PSE and shall be used for covering the costs of operating and developing of PSE.

Article 8 – Refunds of Fees

- (1) The amount of payment or overpayment of a fee is refunded if the acceptance of payment would constitute an unlawful enrichment on the side of PSE.
- (2) The annual fees listed in Article 2, paragraph 1, letter c) are non-refundable in cases when the issuer is delisted in the course of the year.
- (3) The annual fees listed in Article 2, paragraph 1, letter f) are non-refundable in cases where the member terminates the membership during the year.

Article 9 – Exemption from Payment of Fees

- (1) The amount of the fees for bonds issued by local and regional governments is one half of the amount of the relevant fee (this applies to one-off fees).
- (2) The only securities accepted free of charge for trading at PSE are for healthcare organisations and other humanitarian organisations.
- (3) The amount of fees for bond issue with recognised state bond status is one half of the relevant amount. Tranches of state bonds issued within the framework of the state bond programme are exempt from the fee pursuant to Article 2, chapter 1, letter c).
- (4) The change of the securities number in an issue is exempt from the fee in the case of separation of the right to yield on a bond.
